

Home Group Notes – Week 28/02/2016

Forgiveness of God and Self

Overall Concept

- Forgiveness is not: forgetting, condoning, denying, reconciliation
- Forgiveness is: releasing the debt, not having a heart of punishment, not holding against
- Forgiveness is a daily practice, a lifestyle

Some Bible References

- As we were forgiven: Col 3:13
- Lord's Prayer: Mt 6:9-13

Study Questions

- Is this concept of forgiving self just a modern day self-centered thing?
- How great is the need to forgive ourselves?
- Are certain people more prone to hold things against themselves?
- Can we admit we did do wrong (sin) against ourselves, yet still forgive?
- How often do we blame God for something that has hurt us?
- Is there an area in your past that you just can't seem to shake?
- Is the process of forgiveness seeming to take too long?